Australia.

Madam,

I have to acknowledge receipt of your letter dated June 24, 1937, and to inform you that your husband, Mr. S.R.R. Ambrose, is still employed as Chief Examiner in the Chinese Maritime Customs, Old Ningpo Wharf, Shanghai, and resides at No. 357 Brenan Road.

I am, Madam,

Your obedient servant,

(Sd) K. M. Bourne

Deputy Commissioner of Police in Charge.

SHANGHAI MUNICIPAL POLICE.

Special Branch - CS6. Station,

REPORT

Date July 31, 1937.

Subject Communication dated June 24, 1937 from Mrs. A. I. AMBROSE, 55 Mitchell Street, Sydney, New South Wales, Australia.

Made by..... and Forwarded by..... D.S. Pitts.

Enquiries indicate that the contents of the attached communication are fundamentally correct.

Mr. S.R.R. AMBROSE at present holds the rank of Chief Examiner (A) in the Chinese Maritime Customs and is attached to the Old Ningpo Wharf. His private address is 35F Brenan Road, where he is living with a woman of Russian nationality.

Mr. S.R.R. AMBROSE owes considerable amounts of money to various persons in Shanghai and it is learned that Mr. H. BROWETT, Solicitor and Advocate, of 34 Museum Road, has been acting on behalf of certain of his creditors in an effort to effect a settlement.

During the course of this enquiry nothing has been done that might embarrass Mr. AMBROSE in his present position in the Chinese Maritime Customs.

My name is --

Mrs. Ambrose and I seek information regarding the whereabouts (Womestic business address) of my husband Sydney Reginald R. Ambrose who last wrote me from Shang hai September 18th, 36 at which time he was still in the employ of the Chinese Maritime Customs as an Examiner & post he has held for many years. On that occasion he asked me to take steps to secure a divorce as his affections were elsewhere.

I was married to Mr. Ambrose in Shang hai at the N. S. B. Consulate

by the Acting Consul E. G. Jamieson June 19th 1925. I resided in China for a period of ten years, my husband being stationed first at Shanghai then to Nanjing next to Canton & afterwards I slang again Shanghai to all of which places I accompanied him. We last lived at The Norfolk in Seymour Road Shanghai from which place I for health reasons left for Sydney about June 16th per $\frac{1}{2}$ cabin $\frac{1}{2}$ stateroom leaving Hong Kong June 19th per Stateroom arrived in Sydney 13th July 35.
 I have remained with my Mother ever since.

Since the date supplied to you 18-9-36 my husband has not written me, nor in spite of my repeated requests has he sent me my fare to return to him. I have written him (and always in friendly terms) regularly acknowledging small remittances sent at irregular intervals but without any letter from him accompanying these Bank Drafts.

I am desirous of returning to my my husband but cannot do so unless he forwards the necessary money.

If therefore you can give me any details regarding Mr. Ambrose's present occupation & domestic affairs in view of his request that I divorce him, I shall be most grateful as I am in necessitous circumstances and am in debt to my Mother who is also in poor circumstances for providing me with a home

Yours & affly
Anne. J. Ambrose
